Hubbard v. Sun Coast Ventures, et al.
Plaintiff's Complaint

I. SUMMARY

1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiff Barbara Hubbard ("Hubbard") for discrimination at the building, structure, facility, complex, property, land, development, and/or surrounding business complex known as:

Taco Bell #002800
1737 Sweetwater Road
National City, CA 91950
(hereafter "the Restaurant")

9        2. Hubbard seeks damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, attorney
10 fees and costs, against Sun Coast Ventures dba Taco Bell #002800; Richard B.
11 Armstrong, Co-Trustee off the Armstrong Revocable Inter-Vivos Trust Dated 12 October 28, 1983; and, Joyce L. Armstrong, Co-Trustee off the Armstrong
13 Revocable Inter-Vivos Trust Dated October 28, 1983 (hereinafter collectively 14 referred to as "Taco Bell") pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 15 1990, ( 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq.), and related California statutes.

II. JURISDICTION

17       3.    This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 18 1343 for ADA claims.

19       4. Supplemental jurisdiction for claims brought under parallel
20 California law—arising from the same nucleus of operative facts—is predicated
21 on 28 U.S.C. § 1337.

22 || 5. Hubbard's claims are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

III. VENUE

24       6. All actions complained of herein take place within the jurisdiction
25 of the United States District Court, Southern District of California, and venue is 26 invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c).

IV. PARTIES

7. Taco Bell owns, operates, or leases the Restaurant, and consists of a person (or persons), firm, or corporation.

8. Hubbard has multiple conditions that affect one or more major life functions. She requires the use of motorized wheelchair and a mobility-equipped vehicle, when traveling about in public. Consequently, Hubbard is "physically disabled," as defined by all applicable California and United States laws, and a member of the public whose rights are protected by these laws.

V. FACTS

9. The Restaurant is an establishment serving food and drink, open to the public, which is intended for nonresidential use and whose operation affects commerce.

10. Hubbard visited the Restaurant and encountered barriers (both physical and intangible) that interfered with—if not outright denied—her ability to use and enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and accommodations offered at the facility. To the extent known by Hubbard, the barriers at the Restaurant included, but are not limited to, the following:

- The disabled parking space has a slope and/or cross slope that exceeds 2.0%;
- The access aisle adjacent to the disabled parking space has a slope and/or cross slope that exceeds 2.0%;
- The International Symbol of Accessibility painted in the parking stall is the wrong size;
- The signage in the van accessible parking stall is not correct;
- The platform landing at the ramp is not 60 inches by 60 inches;
- There is no seating designated as being accessible to the disabled;
- There is no accessible seating;
- There is not 30 inches of clear space between the booths;

- 1     • The food service counter is too high and does not have a portion lowered
2        to accommodate patrons in wheelchairs;
- 3     • The toilet tissue dispenser protrudes into the clear maneuvering space
4        needed to access the water closet;
- 5     • The flush valve on the water closet is located on the wrong side;
- 6     • The disposable seat cover dispenser is mounted more than 40 inches from 7        the finish floor;
- 8     • The disposable seat cover dispenser is mounted behind the water closet 9        and is therefore out of the required reach range limits;
- 10    • The water closet is an obstruction to the use of the disposable seat cover 11        dispenser;
- 12    • The side grab bar does not extend 24 inches from the front of the water 13        closet;
- 14    • The side grab bar is not 12 inches from the back wall; and,
- 15    • The pipes underneath the lavatory are not properly and/or completely 16        wrapped.

17    These barriers prevented Hubbard from enjoying full and equal access.

18    11. Hubbard was also deterred from visiting the Restaurant because she 19        knew that the Restaurant's goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and 20        accommodations were unavailable to physically disabled patrons (such as 21        herself). She continues to be deterred from visiting the Restaurant because of the 22        future threats of injury created by these barriers.

23    12. Hubbard also encountered barriers at the Restaurant, which violate
24        state and federal law, but were unrelated to her disability. Nothing within this 25        Complaint, however, should be construed as an allegation that Hubbard is 26        seeking to remove barriers unrelated to her disability.

27    13. Taco Bell knew that these elements and areas of the Restaurant were 28        inaccessible, violate state and federal law, and interfere with (or deny) access to

1 the physically disabled. Moreover, Taco Bell has the financial resources to 2 remove these barriers from the Restaurant (without much difficulty or expense),
3 and make the facility accessible to the physically disabled. To date, however,
4 Taco Bell refuses to either remove those barriers or seek an unreasonable
5 hardship exemption to excuse non-compliance.

6 14. At all relevant times, Taco Bell has possessed and enjoyed sufficient
7 control and authority to modify the Restaurant to remove impediments to 8 wheelchair access and to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act
9 Accessibility Guidelines and Title 24 regulations. Taco Bell has not removed 10 such impediments and has not modified the Restaurant to conform to 11 accessibility standards. Taco Bell has intentionally maintained the Restaurant in 12 its current condition and has intentionally refrained from altering the Restaurant
13 so that it complies with the accessibility standards.

14 15. Hubbard further alleges that the (continued) presence of barriers at 15 the Restaurant is so obvious as to establish Taco Bell's discriminatory intent.<sup>1</sup>
16 On information and belief, Hubbard avers that evidence of this discriminatory
17 intent includes Taco Bell's refusal to adhere to relevant building standards;
18 disregard for the building plans and permits issued for the Restaurant;
19 conscientious decision to the architectural layout (as it currently exists) at the 20 Restaurant; decision not to remove barriers from the Restaurant; and allowance
21 that the Restaurant continues to exist in its non-compliant state. Hubbard further 22 alleges, on information and belief, that Taco Bell is not in the midst of a remodel,
23 and that the barriers present at the Restaurant are not isolated (or temporary)
24 interruptions in access due to maintenance or repairs.<sup>2</sup>

Plaintiff's Complaint

1 VI. FIRST CLAIM

2 Americans with Disabilities Act of 19903 Denial of "Full and Equal" Enjoyment and Use4 16. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
5 through 15 for this claim.6 17. Title III of the ADA holds as a "general rule" that no individual
7 shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal
8 enjoyment (or use) of goods, services, facilities, privileges, and accommodations
9 offered by any person who owns, operates, or leases a place of public
10 accommodation. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).11 18. Taco Bell discriminated against Hubbard by denying "full and equal 12 enjoyment" and use of the goods, services, facilities, privileges or 13 accommodations of the Restaurant during each visit and each incident of 14 deterrence.15 Failure to Remove Architectural Barriers in an Existing Facility16 19. The ADA specifically prohibits failing to remove architectural 17 barriers, which are structural in nature, in existing facilities where such removal
18 is readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). The term "readily 19 achievable" is defined as "easily accomplishable and able to be carried out
20 without much difficulty or expense." Id. § 12181(9).21 20. When an entity can demonstrate that removal of a barrier is not 22 readily achievable, a failure to make goods, services, facilities, or 23 accommodations available through alternative methods is also specifically 24 prohibited if these methods are readily achievable. Id. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(v).25 21. Here, Hubbard alleges that Taco Bell can easily remove the 26 architectural barriers at the Restaurant without much difficulty or expense, and 27 that Taco Bell violated the ADA by failing to remove those barriers, when it was 28 readily achievable to do so.

22. In the alternative, if it was not “readily achievable” for Taco Bell to remove the Restaurant’s barriers, then Taco Bell violated the ADA by failing to make the required services available through alternative methods, which are readily achievable.

Failure to Design and Construct an Accessible Facility

23. On information and belief, the Restaurant was designed or constructed (or both) after January 26, 1992—Independently triggering access requirements under Title III of the ADA.

24. The ADA also prohibits designing and constructing facilities for first occupancy after January 26, 1993, that aren't readily accessible to, and usable by, individuals with disabilities when it was structurally practicable to do so. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(1).

25. Here, Taco Bell violated the ADA by designing or constructing (or both) the Restaurant in a manner that was not readily accessible to the physically disabled public—including Hubbard—when it was structurally practical to do so.<sup>3</sup>

Failure to Make an Altered Facility Accessible

26. On information and belief, the Restaurant was modified after January 26, 1992, independently triggering access requirements under the ADA.

27. The ADA also requires that facilities altered in a manner that affects (or could affect) its usability must be made readily accessible to individuals with disabilities to the maximum extent feasible. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2). Altering an area that contains a facility's primary function also requires adding making the paths of travel, bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving that area accessible to the maximum extent feasible. Id.

<sup>3</sup> Nothing within this Complaint should be construed as an allegation that plaintiff is bringing this action as a private attorney general under either state or federal statutes.

28. Here, Taco Bell altered the Restaurant in a manner that violated the ADA and was not readily accessible to the physically disabled public—including Hubbard—to the maximum extent feasible.

Failure to Modify Existing Policies and Procedures

29. The ADA also requires reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures, when necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter their nature. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

30. Here, Taco Bell violated the ADA by failing to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures at the Restaurant, when these modifications were necessary to afford (and would not fundamentally alter the nature of) these goods, services, facilities, or accommodations.

31. Hubbard seeks all relief available under the ADA (i.e., injunctive relief, attorney fees, costs, legal expense) for these aforementioned violations. 42 U.S.C. § 12205.

32. Hubbard also seeks a finding from this Court (i.e., declaratory relief) that Taco Bell violated the ADA in order to pursue damages under California's Unruh Civil Rights Act or Disabled Persons Act.

VII. SECOND CLAIM

Disabled Persons Act

33. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 30 for this claim.

34. California Civil Code § 54 states, in part, that: Individuals with disabilities have the same right as the general public to the full and free use of the streets, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings and facilities, and other public places.

1       35. California Civil Code § 54.1 also states, in part, that: Individuals
2 with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access to accommodations,
3 facilities, telephone facilities, places of public accommodation, and other places
4 to which the general public is invited.

5       36. Both sections specifically incorporate (by reference) an individual's 6 rights under the ADA. See Civil Code §§ 54(c) and 54.1(d).

7       37. Here, Taco Bell discriminated against the physically disabled
8 public—including Hubbard—by denying them full and equal access to the 9 Restaurant. Taco Bell also violated Hubbard’s rights under the ADA, and,
10 therefore, infringed upon or violated (or both) Hubbard’s rights under the 11 Disabled Persons Act.

12       38. For each offense of the Disabled Persons Act, Hubbard seeks actual 13 damages (both general and special damages), statutory minimum damages of one
14 thousand dollars ($1,000), declaratory relief, and any other remedy available
15 under California Civil Code § 54.3.

16       39. She also seeks to enjoin Taco Bell from violating the Disabled
17 Persons Act (and ADA) under California Civil Code § 55, and to recover
18 reasonable attorneys' fees and incurred under California Civil Code §§ 54.3 and 19 55.

VIII. THIRD CLAIM

Unruh Civil Rights Act

22        40. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 23 through 30 for this claim.

24        41. California Civil Code § 51 states, in part, that: All persons within 25 the jurisdiction of this state are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, 26 advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of 27 every kind whatsoever.

42. California Civil Code § 51.5 also states, in part, that: No business establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against any person in this state because of the disability of the person.

43. California Civil Code § 51(f) specifically incorporates (by reference) an individual's rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

44. Taco Bell's aforementioned acts and omissions denied the physically disabled public—including Hubbard—full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges and services in a business establishment (because of their physical disability).

45. These acts and omissions (including the ones that violate the ADA) denied, aided or incited a denial, or discriminated against Hubbard by violating the Unruh Act.

46. Hubbard was damaged by Taco Bell's wrongful conduct, and seeks statutory minimum damages of four thousand dollars ($4,000) for each offense.

47. Hubbard also seeks to enjoin Taco Bell from violating the Unruh Act (and ADA), and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred under California Civil Code § 52(a).

IX. FOURTH CLAIM

Denial of Full and Equal Access to Public Facilities

48. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 13 for this claim.

49. Health and Safety Code § 19955(a) states, in part, that: California public accommodations or facilities (built with private funds) shall adhere to the provisions of Government Code § 4450.

50. Health and Safety Code § 19959 states, in part, that: Every existing (non-exempt) public accommodation constructed prior to July 1, 1970, which is altered or structurally repaired, is required to comply with this chapter.

51. Hubbard alleges the Restaurant is a public accommodation constructed, altered, or repaired in a manner that violates Part 5.5 of the Health and Safety Code or Government Code § 4450 (or both), and that the Restaurant was not exempt under Health and Safety Code § 19956.

52. Taco Bell's non-compliance with these requirements at the Restaurant aggrieved (or potentially aggrieved) Hubbard and other persons with physical disabilities. Accordingly, she seeks injunctive relief and attorney fees pursuant to Health and Safety Code § 19953.

X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Hubbard prays judgment against Taco Bell for:

1. Injunctive relief, preventive relief, or any other relief the Court deems proper.
2. Declaratory relief that Taco Bell violated the ADA for the purposes of Unruh Act or Disabled Persons Act damages.
3. Statutory minimum damages under either sections 52(a) or 54.3(a) of the California Civil Code (but not both) according to proof.
4. Attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit.<sup>4</sup>
5. Interest at the legal rate from the date of the filing of this action.
